Welcome to Comet Finance

As a business proprietor ask yourself these questions:

- Do I have a bank relationship manager?
- Does my relationship manager visit my business?
- Does my relationship manager understand me, my business and my finance needs?
- Do I enjoy the process of borrowing money and the time spent in formulating an application for finance?
- Am I confident that my business finance structure is the most appropriate for my business to achieve my personal goals and business growth?

If you answered 'no' to any of these questions then Comet Finance may be able to help in the following ways:

- By maintaining regular contact with you at your business at times that are convenient to you.
- By understanding you and your business so we can determine your needs and finding the right mix of products and lenders.
- By building a long term relationship with you to ensure your business finance needs for today and in the future are fulfilled whether for capital growth, improved cash flow or for new equipment.
- By co-ordinating and negotiating the loan application and funding process.
- By allowing you to focus on the business of running your business!

Who We Are

Comet Finance is a newly formed licensed finance broking company based in Joondalup WA. The company is owner operated by principals, Graham Gillespie, Stephen Chitty and Allan Chitty. Graham and Stephen have over 50 years combined experience with major banking institutions. This includes many years experience in the commercial and corporate lending/relationship environment. Allan Chitty is a Chartered Accountant with significant experience in small/medium business management and consulting.

We understand that business owners are becoming increasingly dissatisfied with the service they receive from their bankers and that finding the right finance structure is complex and time consuming.

Our business lending experience and reputation combined with our access to a wide array of preferred lenders enables us to source and negotiate the most appropriate funding package to suit your needs, now and in the future.

We are committed to building long term relationships with the delivery of personalized service to take the time to understand you and your business and help you on an ongoing basis as your business grows. We are committed to upholding the highest level of ethical standards for the industry.

'Experience the Difference' and contact Graham, Stephen or Allan today to arrange a no obligation consultation.
